"Crystal Starr is a beauty, her voice is the best, bring her to Britain anytime we will have her!"

Soul singer collaborating empowers women with new song "She"

Let's face it, there's no shortage of female empowerment anthems out there -- and that's a good thing! But when four talented soul singers who also happen to be best friends collaborate on one such anthem, the message of lifting up other women becomes that much more authentic and powerful! The fierce foursome recorded the track live with a string orchestra, and the effect is breathtaking!

Kiss' Paul Stanley Croons Unadorned R&B Classics at Soul Station Debut

For the Jackson 5's "I Want You Back," Stanley picked up a tambourine and handed lead vocals to Crystal Starr, who nailed the tune with searing passion and skill.

CLOCK TOWER

Singer/songwriter/entertainer, Crystal Starr, releases "She," a new ballad that celebrates the empowerment of women in a year that has seen the 'fairer-sex' strive to break the glass ceiling and change the world for the better. Starr encourages us all to go on a journey through herstory, rather than history.
